COACHES ARE SILENT ON MISSOURI'S CHANCES

Just what is taking place behind the locked gates of Rollins Field remains a mystery to every one except the coaches and members of the varsity squad—and they don't tell. Rothwell Gymnasium is a tomb of silence with regard to Missouri's chances in the pending battle with Kansas. Coach John F. Miller smiles and says, "we're working, that's all."

Secret practice for the Tigers has always preceded the Thanksgiving game, but heretofore reporters have been admitted to the field. This year the rule has been changed and press representatives are barred along with other spectators.

According to Coach Miller the All-American game which takes place Saturday afternoon will not be a contest between the varsity squads and the freshmen as has been the custom in the past. It will be a hard scrimmage from start to finish and every man on the varsity squad who is in condition will have an opportunity to play.

A small admission fee, probably a quarter, will be charged at the gate. The new rules for the Thanksgiving game will be observed.

Twelve students to work all day on Saturday. New York State.

A few years ago and whose individual play defeated Yale in 1917, is scheduled to perform at one of the halfback positions. Pollard was hailed in 1917 as one of the greatest football players. He was picked by Walter Camp for the All-American team. Brewer, who will also play in the back field for the Chicago eleven, is a former Northwestern University star. The Chicago mugs have not lost a game this season.

The Columbia team, led by Boedler Brown, has played four games this season and lost but one. Mexico, Jefferson City and Fulton were defeated while Liberty administered the defeat on the Liberty grounds.

U. H. S. TEAM PLAYS CARROLLTON TOMORROW

Sixteen men of the University High School football squad left for Carrollton today to play a game with Carrollton High School tomorrow afternoon. Two men of the squad were unable to go along because of injuries, and three men who have not fully recovered from injuries probably will be in the line-up. The team is taking three days for the trip in order to keep in condition for the Thanksgiving game with Columbia High School.

Carrollton has won from Kansas City and St. Joseph schools and has a lead on all other teams in their conference. University High School and Carrollton played a 0 to 0 game October 22 on Rollins Field. The final kick of the Carrollton team weighs 205 pounds, more than any man on the Missouri Varsity squad.

University High School has not lost to any high school team although it was beaten by Kemper and Missouri military academies the first of the season.

BATTERY B AND CO. K PLAYS TIE

The same colored yesterday between Battery B and Company K of the R. O. T. ended in a tie 7 to 7.

Bigot B made its touchdown in the first quarter when Burns carried the ball through center for its only score. The ball was in the infantry territory most of the time, the final quarter ending with the ball in their nine-yard line. The battery team made their down consistently and completed several forward passes.

The Columbia team during the first quarter worked the line for several gains but failed their offensive later to the ends.

Columbia K scored when Shaw booted the ball from the kick-off to the artillery line. A battery man touched the ball and a Infantryman fell on it for a touchdown.
